

The plan and teaching materials must be handed over to the tutoring teacher latest a day before teaching at an agreed time.

Materials ment for pupils must be attached to the plan.

THE SUBJECT DIDACTIC PLAN OF TEACHING / Basic practice

Time (date and time):

Teacher trainee:

Class:

Class teacherLuokan opettaja:

Subject:

Didaktikko:

The phenomenon (theme):The central concepts of the phenomenon / knowledge structure:*The aims of content knowledge and skills (What does a pupil learn?):*Central working and studying aims (What does a pupil learn?) ks. Liite 2a:

a) skills to plan:

d) skills to regulate:

b) skills to carry it out:

e) skills to evaluate:

c) responsibility:

f) interactivity:

use of time	The organization of studies:
	Contents, the phases of teaching;	Teaching methods, methods, grouping of pupils, differentiation, integration, materials and tools, teaching technology:	Assessment of studying and skills	Teaching and learning theories as to the knowledge and skills aims.(*

*) Behavioristic emphasis: (e.g.. teacher centred, outer motivation, fragmented learning aims and assessment of learning results); ↔ Socio-constructiv emphasis: (e.g.. phenomenon centered, inner motivation, the aims of understanding a phenomenon, assessment of learning processes and skills, self-evaluation) Write the aim and grounds for it.

The plan for the demonstration of teaching (blackboard drawing, PPS, etc.)

and the description of how you use the physical learning environment:

The student's own learning aims:

Feed-back (self-assessment, peer evaluation, assessment of the tutors) and own conclusions: